THE LIMIT PASSED.

One Scheme Which the Girl's Stern Parent Would Not Sanction.
"Please, mamma, please!"
"Tapa, I beg of you do not refuse!"
Cordelia Pasdetout clung wildly about her fond but obdurate mother's neck and rained kisses upon her cheeks, while Anastasia, her sister, did likewise to her father.
But their pleading seemed of no avail. The elder Pasdetouts shook their gray heads firmly in negation, though it was evident that the necessity of refusing their daughters' request pained them beyond measure.
Gently, but with decision, as one shakes a hard shelled crab from out a sculp net, the parents disentangled their daughters' arms from their shoulders; then, mastering his emotions, the father said:
"No, Anastasia and Cordelia, what you ask of us is too much! Never before have we refused a request of yours. We have moved from city to city, from state to state, to the injury of my business and the destruction of your mother's health. In order to deceive people as to your ages. For the last ten years it has been nothing but move on for us, for every time the people of one place would begin to suspect your true ages, you have insisted on us packing up and going elsewhere, that you might start anew at 22 and 23, respectively. We have submitted to this nomadic life for our love of you, but your most recent demand is too much. We absolutely refuse!"
The daughters sobbed like anything. In fact, they sobbed like everything. But their firm parent remained firm.
"No," continued Mr. Pasdetout: "we will not, absolutely will not, celebrate our silver wedding again in order to prove to people that you two cannot be over 24 at the outside! The idea!"—Harper's Bazar.

TAKE WATER FOR MEDICINE.

A Health Producer Which is Available Everywhere.
There is no doubt that we do not drink enough. Our bodies consist largely of water, and the average man needs to drink from four to six pints of water daily in order to maintain health. This is the amount of water eliminated from the body by means of the kidneys, the skin and lungs. It is evident that a fresh supply is constantly needed to supply this lost aid in the process of digestion and carry away waste matter.
If the amount of water imbibed is not sufficient for all this, the health must suffer. Air, water and food are the essentials of life in the order given. A person can fast a long time—experiments have proved this—but that same person could not get along without water for that length of time.
As a usual thing women are the ones who suffer the most from an insufficiency of water. Mothers should see to it that their children have plenty of water to drink.

There is a diversity of opinion regarding drinking at meals. Some assert that the practice is injurious, as it dilutes the gastric juice. Others again claim that a glassful of pure drinking water taken during the process of mastication is healthful. On one point, however, all authorities agree—namely, that ice water is injurious.
Generally speaking, the theory advocated by the best physicians nowadays is to drink often and much. It cleanses the system, increases circulation and helps to make a clear complexion. Therefore, ye men and women, the latter especially, drink. Take clear, pure, sterilized water and be thankful so simple a remedy of nature is near at hand.—Table Talk.

Fireproof Safes.
"For city use in modern buildings," said a safe manufacturer, "safes are nowadays made thinner walled than formerly, thus giving them more room inside in proportion to the space the safe occupies. The modern building is fireproof, or substantially so, and in case of fire the safe does not fall down through the burned floors into a mass of burning debris in the cellar, but it stays where it has been placed, supported by the steel floor beams of the room and, with less around it to burn, subjected to comparatively less heat.
"Under such conditions the thin walled safe is as fireproof as the thick walled safe would be under the conditions in which it is used in the old style buildings, for use in which the thick walled safe is still commonly sold."—New York Sun.

Just Like a Man.
Biggs (to cabman)—What will you charge to take me and my wife to Blank's hotel?
Cabman—One dollar, sir.
Biggs—And how much for taking me alone?
Cabman—The same—one dollar.
Biggs (to his wife)—There, my dear, you see how much you are valued at.—Chicago News.

I and My.
The pronouns "I" and "my" are greatly to be avoided in general conversation. "I" do this or that; "my" children are so and so; "my" cook, "my" house, "my" equipages—such iteration sets terribly on the nerves of the listener, besides being in very bad form.—New York Tribune.

Handy.
"This man," said the keeper softly, "imagines he has millions."
"Isn't that nice?" answered the visitor. "Whenever he needs money all he has to do is to draw on his imagination."—Kansas City Times.

A Drifting Wreck.
"What is a skeptic, pa?"
"Well, the most hopeless kind of skeptic is a woman who has lost her faith in doctors."—Indianapolis Journal.

Some excellent music was rendered by the choir of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's cathedral Sunday morning. A large congregation was present and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Hamilton Lee. The singing of Bennett's anthem, "God is a Spirit," without accompaniment, was a delightful bit of vocalization. The service was fully choral.

Moon Wong, alias Nai Wai, alias several other names, was arrested before the district magistrate of Wailuku on Thursday charged with burglarizing the Hawaiian Commercial company's store at Kahului to the amount of several hundred dollars' worth of clothing and watches. He admitted the charge, restored the stolen goods and was committed for trial before the circuit court at the December term.

Among the remains of the soldiers exhumed here last week to be returned to the mainland was the body of a member of the New York regiment in a state of almost perfect preservation, although it had been buried nearly two years. A local undertaker embalmed the body at the request of members of the company to which the young man belonged. It will now be possible for relatives to view the face through the glass of the casket after it reaches home.
